HOLIDAY DELIGHTS

Make holiday magic this season with a menu that elevates your entertaining game

The holidays are often called a magical time of year, from the gathering of loved ones to the blanket of snow (we hope). Whether you're a certified foodie or just an everyday enthusiast, 'tis the season to go all out with your entertaining and, especially, your food prep.

This time of year, it's OK to show off a little and impress and delight your guests with truly inspired meals, snacks, and drinks.

A bold, sophisticated menu is easy to put together. On the following screens, some inspiration: sparkling drink recipes with a twist to get your party started, fresh takes on holiday favourites and foolproof classics, delicious dessert ideas, and more. You'll find the ingredients you need to make your homemade meal a thing of beauty, and a few tricks to take your table presentation over the top.

Julia Child once said, "Everything can have drama if it's done right." This year, channel your inner chef and make your holiday menu a magical moment for all your guests.

HOLIDAY PASTA? YOU BET!

Tired of turkey? This upscale pasta is worthy of any occasion

Make mouthwatering pasta your new holiday tradition. Your guests won't believe you didn't order in from the finest Italian resto in town — just add fresh-cooked lobster to PC Black Label Vodka Pasta Sauce. Imported from Italy, it's made with hand-harvested sweet tomatoes, olive oil, and both Pecorino Romano and Parmigiano-Reggiano cheeses. What makes it truly unique, however, is the distinct splash of vodka that adds character to the traditional flavours. TIP: Also try it over rice and mixed with olives, rosemary, and sautéed shrimp.

OPEN BAR

MERCURY RISING

Warm up your holiday decor with these mercury glass candle holders. Don't worry; although they're wonderfully metallic and sparkly, they don't contain any mercury — just loads of charm.

BEST IN GLASS

This retro-chic decanter and glass set has the iconic diamond-etched pattern of many a swinging holiday bash. Pour fine whisky for your finest guests this season.

POUR YOUR HEART OUT

Here's a secret: a medium-priced festive wine tastes like a million bucks when it's decanted.
